

Dementia - Capable Wisconsin
Dementia Generalist for Community Members Train-the-Trainer
1-hour Online Course

Syllabus

This training includes the following three sections as listed below:

Section I: Adult Learning Principles

- Adult learning principles
- Common learning styles
- Considering your audience
- Positive messages a trainer can send

Section II: Dementia Overview

- Definition of dementia including Alzheimer's disease
- Types of dementia
- The effects of dementia on the brain
- A video tour of the brain
- 10 early warning signs of Alzheimer's disease and other dementias
- Prevalence of dementia
- Prevalence of dementia in Wisconsin and across the nation.

Section III: Access to Printable Dementia Training Materials*

- A "Dementia Training for Community Members" facilitator's guide that includes:
 - The training curriculum for in-person presentations
 - Additional resources for information on dementia
 - One-page handout for each member of your audience
- An optional PowerPoint presentation that supports the live training (if audio/visual equipment is available.)

*Learners who successfully complete the final assessment will receive a printable certificate of completion and receive permission to utilize the Section III materials in cost-free presentations in their communities.

Also included are:

Printable Handout
Printable Resources
Final Assessment
Course Evaluation
Certificate of Completion
CEU Application

For additional information, please contact dementiacare@uwosh.edu or visit the website at <http://www.uwosh.edu/dementia>