

Meaningful Engagement through Activities for people living with dementia

Learning Objectives

After completing this course, learners will be able to:

- Understand the value of failure-free activities.
- Identify various types of failure-free activities.
- Modify activities based on abilities and personal history.
- Identify approaches for successful engagement.

Syllabus

Value of Activities

Work Activities (Task Oriented)

- Short Story Scenario-Meet Greta

Self-Care Activities

- Encouragement and Support

Leisure Activities

Rest Activities

- Short Story Scenario-Meet Harry

Choosing Effective and Appropriate Activities

Personal History and Background

Modifications and Adaptations (to Activities)

How to Assess an Activity

- Short Story Scenario-Meet Marianne

Set-Up/Preparation/Timing

(Using) Please and Thank You

Reinforcement, Praise and Feedback

Modifying Expectations

Also included are:

Printable Resources

Final Assessment

Course Evaluation

Certificate of Completion

CEU Application (optional)

For additional information, please contact dementiacare@uwosh.edu or visit the website at <http://www.uwosh.edu/dementia>